Roles - Benjamin MI will be responsible for food distribution that is not handled by individuals themselves.

Quartermaster responsibilities:

- Maintaining a clean, organized, and efficient campsite. There is no excuse for messy or unorganized campsites. Tents, belongings, and food must be organized and every member must practice discipline. It is the responsibility of the Quartermasters and their assistance to ensure this.

- Benjamin MI will be responsible for food distribution, they must ensure that proper portions are being handed out, and that everyone has eaten. Opting out of any meal for any reason will exclude one from the day's activities.

- Ensuring that setting up and descontructing of camp is done quickly and efficiently, trash is to be gathered together and properly disposed of. Trash bags will be brought.

- Communication with organizers about camp conditions, amount of food left, status on everyone being fed, and general upkeep of camp.

White Hand Message:
